

THE LINE DRAWING PROJECT —

A transformative collaborative drawing project on Instagram

Date: ongoing

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE :

THE LINE is pleased to announce THE LINE DRAWING PROJECT, featuring works by exceptional artists invited from our network. Our invitational virtual group exhibition includes works by Judith Berk-King, Pip Brant, Julie Davidow, Joana Fischer, Elodie Garrone, Felice Grodin, Adler Guerrier, Gabriele Gutwirth, Tobias Hoffmann, Edward A Kingsburry III, Susanne Koheil, Nicole Lenzi, Amanda Madrigal, Il Jong Park, Maria Paterson, Anna Rebel, Mia Rosenthal, Tilly Strauss, Shakira Williams, Guenter Wintgens.

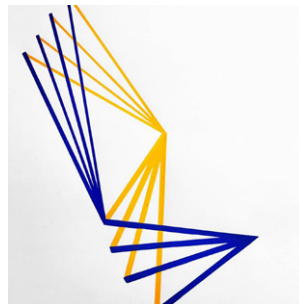

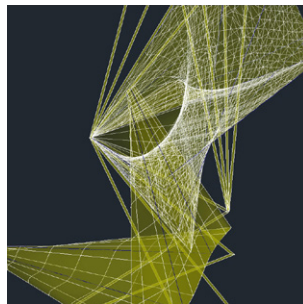

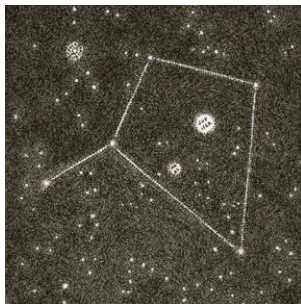

THE LINE DRAWING PROJECT is a continuous, global collaborative project on Instagram @the_line_drawing_project. The idea behind it is to create a long transformative chain of drawings with other established artists. Each artist first copies/repeats/takes over one element of the previously posted drawing and then creates something new.

The works are all drawings. Each posted drawing is a response to the previously posted drawing from a different artist.

A site specific installation with projections of the submitted works will be an end goal of the project. For more information please send an email to info@joana-fischer.com.

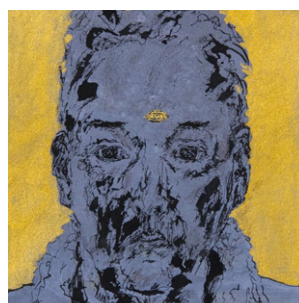

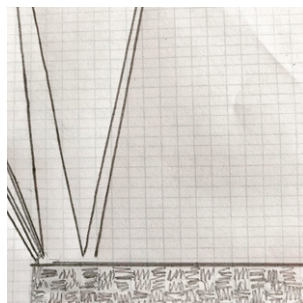

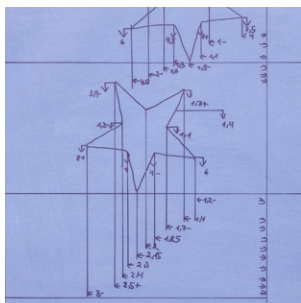

THE LINE is an artist collective aiming to connect artists for collaborative exhibitions, site specific projects and installations all over the globe. It shall also encourage creative exchange and skill development among the participants. The focus lies on contemporary, diverse and non traditional drawing in combination with other media. THE LINE is based in Miami, USA.

THE LINE DRAWING PROJECT – WORKS (page 1)

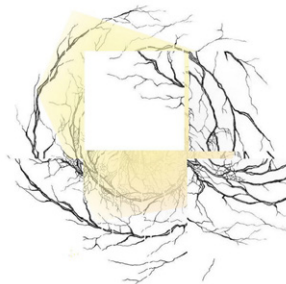

L-R, top-bottom:

Mia Rosenthal,
Felice Grodin,
Elodie Garrone,
Maria Paterson,
Il Jong Park,
Johanna Schreiner,
Susanne Koheil,
Pip Brant,
Julie Davidow,
Tobias Hoffmann,
Amanda Madrigal,
Guenter Wintgens

THE LINE DRAWING PROJECT—WORKS (page 2)

L-R, top-bottom:

Anna Rebel,
Shakira Williams,
Adler Guerrier,
Gabriele Gutwirth,
Judith Berk-King,
Edward A Kingsbury III,
Nicole Lenzi,
Tilly Strauss,
Joana Fischer (Initial work)

